Hendrickson Ferve subposed to be the duty of the he and then divide the money reed for his bills with Capt. Hendrick-

police and which make victims of the taxpayers.
The bills of the constables, police justice and police force for 1832 aggregate about $22,000.
McAvoy said his arrangement with Capt. Hendrickson was for an equal "divvy" of the fees, so that while the Captain received a salary, he also received one-half the Constable's fees, while the latter did the work.
Lawyer George F. Elliott stated this morning that he had also discovered a system by which the Constable's swelled their bills. If they had five subpoenas to serve in the extreme end of the town, Mr. Elliott said, they would serve them all at the same time, but charge the county for five trips from the Town Hall.
Besides asking for Capt. Henderson's removal, Mr. Elliott says he will also ask for the removal of the six Tax Collectors.

suffering from the effects of poison, and there is only a faint chance of his recovery.

The child was left alone in a room of the house 75 Leonard street this morning while his mother went to a neighboring grocery.

In one corner of the room he found a bottle of carbolic acid, and managed to drink a quantity of it. He was found by Mrs. Carlos when she returned ten minutes later, but an ambulance surgeon, who was summoned, said he did not expect him to live until they could get him to the hospital.

HE REFUSES TO APOLOGIZE.

Therefore, Fuch Wants Westermacher Arrested for Assault. A warrant was issued this morning by Justice Connelly, in the Gates Avenue Police Court, Brooklyn, for the arrest of Jottfried Westernacher, a prominent rine merchant, of Williamsburg, and one fine merchant, of Williamsburg, and one if the leaders of the Arion Singing Somety and many other German societies if the Eastern District.

The complainant is Joseph Fuchs, of 708 Bushwick avenue. Some time last April Westernacher and Fuchs were attending a meeting of the Arion Singing Society. They got into an argument, and Fuchs says Westernacher enforced his point with a chair used as a club. Westernacher has firmly refused to apologize, and consequently Fuchs has secured the warrant.

He was taken to St. Peter's Hospital suffering from a fracture of the skull.

HENDRICKSON'S DEAL. BROOKLYN'S NEW POSTMEN

lands Police Captain Has Fifty Additional Letter-Carriers to Be Appointed at Once.

> Expenditure for Horse Hire is Increased $800 Annually.

Postmaster A. T. Sullivan, of Brooklyn this morning received a letter from First Assistant Postmaster-General Jones, at Washington, authorizing him to appoint fifty additional letter-carriers on July 1 and granting an additional allowance of $800 per year for horse hire.

Postmaster Sullivan wrote to the Post-Office officials at Washington yesterday n to-day discovered some startling morning, and the promptness with which of in Flatlands, as a result of which his application was granted almost took the Capt. Hendrickson may lose his breath away. Usually applications requiring the expenditure of money are answered from two weeks to two months cration were those of Constable Rich-afterwards, with the stereotyped reply that "the communication has been rea McAvoy for $2,909.45. Constable Abra

Remsen for $2,172.70 and Police Jus
With a communication has been re
the ceived and will be looked into." Nothing more is usually heard of the matter until the applicant writes again.

In conversation with an "Evening

World" reporter to-day Mr. Sullivan said that the additional carriers would prove a great boon to the service. Owing to the operation of the Eight-Hour law the postal service in Brooklyn had deteriorated, and the rapid growth of the city are in some sections, had become very irregular.

To remedy these troubles, Mr. Sulli van, early in February, wrote to Wash ington recommending that the General

Posi-Office district and other stations be redistricted.

e was authorized to submit a plan
suggestions, which he did with the above result.

The Postmaster said the fifty new let-ter-carriers will be taken from the eli-gible list which now numbers eighty

ed for his bills with Capt. Hendrick
I suppose it was the duty of the poice to serve subpoenas," said Constable McAvoy, "but we did the odnakwdre McAvoy, "but we did the work and divided with the police."

The police of the town are paid by the taxpayers. In 1892 the constables atteeded to all the criminal and civil work of the town. They served subpoenas and warrants, made arrests and conducted prisoners for the jail. The bills of Constables Remsen and McAvoy for 1892, when they did all the work, only aggregated $1.52.50. Police Justice Ford's bill for the same year was $34.53.

The taxpayers then appropriated $15,600 for the maintenance of a police force, of which Hendrickson was instructed that his men were to serve all sphpoenaes. This arraignment the Town Board believed would leave little or no income to the constables.
In 1893, however, the constables'
bills were just five times as in 1892,
previous to the advent of the police force. This discovery caused the investigation which disclosed the agreement between the constables and the police and which make victims of the taxpayers.

MISSING QUARTET FOUND.

Runaway Brooklyn Lads Arreste in Bridgeport, Conn.

Police Supt. Campbell, of Brooklyn to-day received a despatch from Bridgeport, Conn., saying that Arthur Osborne and Joseph Homiston, the two boys who and Joseph Homiston, the two boys who ran away from their homes last Tuesday, had been arrested in that city.

Osborne is fourteen years old, and lives at 128 Prospect place. His companion is a son of Dr. A. W. Homiston, of 405 Cariton avenue. Chief Campbell notified their parents that the boys had been found, and they will probably be brought home to-night.

Supt. Campbell also announced to-day that Maggle McCormick, twelve years old, of 48 Pearl street, and her friend, Nellie Ward, fifteen years old, of Boston, who disappeared from the home of the former last Monday, had been found at the home of an acquaintance.

"I have been in Chicago ever since," said Henaghan, "but I want to say that I would rather come back here and go to lail than stay in Chicago.

Mrs. Henaghan was in court when her husband arrived, and she rushed into his arms. The two were completely reconciled, so Justice Goetting dismissed the complaint.

The Swindler Said Her Son Was Locked Up, but He Wasn't.

A swindler called at 33 Chapel street. Brooklyn, this morning and told Mrs. Mary Manning that her son Michael was locked up in New York on a charge of being drunk. He offered to get him out of jail for $10. He got the money and departed. Fifteen minutes later Manning entered the house. He denied that he had been arrested, and notified the police.
